

A PARCHMENT CONSOLE, SIGNED ALDO TURA, 1980S

$8,900

This is a beautiful and stylish console table designed and made by Aldo Tura, an Italian company known for their work in Parchment. The table features a great beveled edge to the top that rests on two columns that have a radius to the inner side. The table is of an impressive size and will command a wall beautifully. The table is signed by way of a sticker on the underside of the top, a conjoined version of the name TURA, this also helps with dating the table as this is a mark used in the 1980s.
