

“CAPELLI” ‘HATS’ PATTERNED UMBRELLA STAND BY PIERO FORNASETTI

$3,200 This is a rare umbrella stand by Piero Fornasetti, utilizing a Capelli or hat pattern as a motif. Clustered colorful hats line the front of the stand. An umbrella stand is fixed to the back for storage. Multiple colors allow this to be used in any interior. The process of applying motifs in this manor begins with the transfer of lithography and then all the colors are applied by hand, creating a unique version each time. This is a wonderful example "Trompe-l'oeil" French for "to fool the eye" and the colors used in this example are vibrant and rich. This stunning and rare Fornasetti piece will be a treasure anywhere it is placed!
