

ITALIAN TERRACOTTA CLASSICAL FIGURE, CIRCA 1900

$2,375 An elegant Italian terracotta classical figure of a male youth, circa 1900. Finely modeled and beautifully proportioned, the figure stands in a graceful contrapposto pose, his gaze lowered and one arm extended in a gesture of contemplation. The draped cloth over his shoulder and the naturalistic detailing of his hair and sandals reveal the refined craftsmanship typical of late-19th-century Tuscan or Neapolitan workshops. Executed in rich, warm terracotta with a soft matte surface, the sculpture recalls the idealized beauty of ancient Roman statuary and Renaissance revival taste.

Mounted on its circular base, the manufacturer's marks and a number appear with the words "made in Italy" and 3 initials. This timeless Italian terracotta classical figure brings warmth and sophistication to both traditional and contemporary interiors. A classic example of Italian terracotta artistry, expressive yet understated, and a superb decorative statement for any collection.
