$3,600 Titled "Lady with Her Bird," this vibrant cubist painting by James F. Giampaoli, dated 1998, is a bold and evocative portrait in acrylic on canvas. The composition features a stylized female figure reclining with a blue parrot perched in her lap, set against a richly patterned and color-saturated background. The work blends figuration with abstracted geometry, resulting in a visual language that is both playful and psychologically complex.

Giampaoli's use of vivid hues, rhythmic shapes, and surreal flourishes recalls the legacy of early modernism, while maintaining a distinct and contemporary voice. The green-haired subject's confident pose and enigmatic smile invite interpretation, lending a narrative weight to this expressive work. Signed and dated lower right, this Cubist painting by James F. Giampaoli is a collector-worthy piece that balances decorative richness with intellectual charm.
