

MAGICAL CARVED STONE MONKEY BAND FROM THE PALM SPRINGS ESTATE OF JACK WARNER

$15,000	Fanciful set of four carved stone monkey musicians we believe to be perhaps Lava stone. Each on a carved stone plinth. Flute, cymbals, drum and lute are the included musicians. Measuring 29 inches tall, the figures are in fine condition overall. From the Palm Springs Estate of Jack L. Warner, founder of Warner Bros. The Warner house in Palm Springs featured interiors and environments by William Haines. The figures were included in the sale of the house to the second owners, who bought the house from the Warner Estate. They remained in their collection until we acquired them.	Circa 1960s	Dimensions Height: 29" Width: 13.5" Depth: 13.5"	Materials Carved stone
----------	---	----------------	--	-------------------------------------