

MAURICE BAILEY CHAISE FOR MONTEVERDI-YOUNG, ESPRESSO BASE, NEWLY RESTORED

$5,800 This striking chaise lounge by Maurice Bailey for Monteverdi- Young is a bold statement of mid-century luxury and craftsmanship. Newly restored, the piece features rich, moss green tufted high performance velvet upholstery with distinctive biscuit-tufting along the seat, back, and side panel. The generous proportions and L-shaped profile are elevated by a sleek, espresso-finished wood base with gently flared legs, offering both structural elegance and visual lightness.

Maurice Bailey's designs for Monte Verde Young reflect a refined California modern aesthetic with subtle Hollywood Regency undertones. This chaise is a standout example of his work—comfortable, sculptural, and impeccably tailored. Perfect for anchoring a living space, bedroom, or lounge area, this Maurice Bailey chaise for Monte Verde Young is as functional as it is collectible. The freshly upholstered finish and elegant lines make it ideal for discerning interiors.

1960s

Dimensions
Height: 33.5"
H

Width: 78"W
Depth: 30"D

Location
Seat Height:
17"H

Materials
Wood,
Upholstery