

EDWARD WORMLEY MODEL 655 SOFAS FOR DUNBAR, GREY MOHAIR

$15,600
Pair

This pair of Edward Wormley Model 655 sofas for Dunbar, circa 1950s, exemplifies Wormley's refined modernist sensibility and timeless mid-century design. These iconic sofas feature clean architectural lines paired with luxurious comfort., blending clean architectural lines with plush comfort. The low-profile frames have been newly upholstered in a luxurious grey mohair velvet that enhances their sculptural form while providing exceptional softness and durability.

Each sofa features an elegantly tufted seat and back, finished with a row of subtle button detailing that adds textural interest without overpowering the streamlined silhouette. Raised on tapered brass legs, the design feels simultaneously grounded and elevated—perfect for interiors seeking a balance between classic and contemporary.

This matched pair remains timeless in its appeal and highly sought after among collectors and designers alike. Ideal for placement in a formal living area, office, or lounge setting, these Wormley-designed sofas offer both heritage and understated glamour.

1950s

Dimensions

Height: 27"H

Width: 84"W

Depth: 31"D

Location

Seat Height:

17.5"H

Materials

brass,

upholstery