

PAIR OF SOLID BRASS TASK LAMPS BY CASELLA LAMPS, SAN FRANCISCO

$2,500
Pair

This elegant pair of Mid-Century Casella brass task lamps exemplifies the refined simplicity and functional sophistication of 1970s California design. With clean, minimalist lines and a rich brass finish, these lamps are ideal for reading, desk lighting, or accenting a thoughtfully curated space. Each lamp features a sculptural shade, slender stem, and sturdy L-shaped base, all rendered in solid brass. The adjustable neck allows for directional lighting without interrupting the sleek, architectural silhouette that has made Cassella lighting highly sought-after by collectors and interior designers alike. Whether placed beside a lounge chair, flanking a console, or used in a home office, these Mid-Century Cassella brass task lamps bring both warmth and modernist appeal. Their timeless design and enduring craftsmanship make them a versatile and lasting addition to any sophisticated interior.

1970s

Dimensions

Height:
48.5"H
Width: 16"W
Depth: 13"D

Materials

Brass