

PASCAL MAGIS, VERY LARGE ABSTRACT ACRYLIC ON CANVAS,
FRANCE, 1999

$20,000

A dynamic and emotionally resonant abstract painting by French artist Pascal Magis, created in 1999. Executed in acrylic on canvas, the work features bold, gestural strokes in deep indigo, earthy browns, greens, and soft whites creating a striking contrast of form and void. The layered textures and expressive movement capture the spirit of post-war European abstraction, while the open composition invites contemplation.

Known for his richly textured canvases and nuanced use of color, Magis conveys both energy and introspection in this piece. The painting is signed by the artist in the lower right corner and remains in excellent condition.

This work is an ideal addition to any modern or contemporary interior and appeals to collectors seeking sophisticated abstract expressionism with European roots.
