

SOFA DESIGNED BY JOHN KEAL FOR BROWN SALTMAN

$5,200 This is a wonderful example of a mid century modern sofa. Designed by John Keal for Brown Saltman, the sofa is upholstered in a heathered beige linen blend fabric and sits on two espresso finished wood vertical runners. The sides of the sofa are stationary, at an angle, and tilt upwards at about 30 degrees giving it a unique design element. Two cushions rest on the back of the sofa and two cushions rest on the sides. All cushions can be removed and the sofa works as an extra place to spend the night; it is the size of a single bed. Extremely comfortable, this sofa would be a wonderful addition to any style interior.
